DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 is allowable for a support for a straight wind instrument allowing for vertical support of the instrument, the support comprising all the indented limitations in combination. The case is a 371 of PCT/ES2005/0000077 and applicant made of record an NPL document of the preliminary Report of Patentability (cited on the IDS) wherein was stated the reasons for patentability of the PCT application over the closest prior art reference Biasini (U. S. Patent 4,407,182). The case was independently searched in view of the amendments to the claims in the U.S. case. The structure disclosed by Biasini fails to disclose a component having all the limitations of the claimed tubular main guide including: legs joined to a bottom end of the tubular main guide (when the support is in an operable position)...legs when in an inoperative folded position are housed in the tubular main guide, around the guide shaft... and wherein the tubular main guide and the guide shaft have removable fixing means which allow for a relative axial movement thereof for a folding/unfolding of the support.

The arrangement for the folding legs is in part taught by Michio (U. S. Patent 4,121,799). The item is a tripod, where there is a tubular main guide and a guide shaft and an arrangement for housing the legs in the main guide. In Michio, by contrast, the main guide and guide shaft do not allow for relative axial movement for folding/unfolding the legs, rather the main guide and guide shaft are inter-connected and it is a leg base part that moves with respect to the tubular main guide and guide shaft.

Claims 2-9 are allowable for dependence on the allowable independent claim 1 and for the citation of additional distinguishing limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
